

Owen Gabrielson

Owen's practice focuses on probate, trust administration, and trust and estate disputes. Before joining the Farr Law Group, he spent two years as a commercial litigator at an international law firm, Holland & Knight, LLP, and almost five years with another firm, Graham & Dunn, PC, where his practice focused on representing financial institutions. He earned his Bachelor's and Masters degrees from the University of Washington in 2000 and his law degree from the University of Oregon in 2003.

EDUCATION

J.D. - University of Oregon School of Law (2003)
M.A., Economics - University of Washington (2000)
B.A., Economics - University of Washington (1998)

PUBLICATIONS

Sarbanes-Oxley Expands the Scope of Debts that are Nondischargeable in Chapter 7, but not Chapter 13, 122 Banking L.J. 406 (2005).

REPRESENTATIVE CASES

Squirrels Nest II, LLC v. Fisher Broadcasting - Seattle TV, LLC, King County Superior Court, No. 09-2-26204-7. Successfully defended broadcasting company's judgment lien from attack by title company and real property purchasers who claimed an interest free of the lien under the bona fide purchaser for value (BFPV) doctrine.

Umpqua Bank v. Bingo Investments LLC, King County Superior Court, No. 09-2-19684-2. Successfully defended national bank's interests in dispute between Umpqua Bank and trust beneficiaries regarding entitlement to trust funds.

Holmes v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., et al., King County Superior Court, No. 06-2-38099-1. Won complete dismissal of wrongful foreclosure lawsuit claims against mortgage lender and won attorney fees following two week trial.

Gravely v. Poulsbo RV, et al., Snohomish County Superior Court, No. 08-2-04657-3. Won complete dismissal at trial for RV dealer and national bank where both were accused of fraud and breach of warranty in connection with an RV sale.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Rising Star 2008, 2009 and 2010 - Washington Law & Politics Magazine
Rising Star 2011 - Washington Super Lawyers