Teaching the probate process to clients creates less stress and keeps the process running smoothly.

Overview

Brandy began working with Farr Law Group in late 2017 as a paralegal specializing in estate administration and probate. Brandy has over eight years of work experience in the field of estate administration from working in both Oregon and Washington and six years of higher education. She truly enjoys the opportunity to help each and every client through the difficult and sometimes confusing journey of estate administration. Brandy assists with probates and enjoys working with both Megan and Owen.
